

The new 60m band would be a tremendous aid to domestic communication and I heartily encourage you to approve its use by Amateur Radio Operators.

Sub-bands work in the other frequencies allotted to us because they keep wide-band modes away from narrow-band ones. The fact that the sub-bands are FCC mandated puts everyone (well, almost..) at ease with the situation and keeps your enforcement efforts to a minimum.

Sincerely,

Paul D. Sergi, NO8D